

Biography Professor Liling Yue

Prof.Dr.Liling Yue,LL.B, LL.M is professor of criminal law, criminal procedure law, criminal justice and human rights law, German law at China University of Political Science and Law in Beijing. She first time received Alexander von Humboldt Scholarship in 1995-1996 and carry out research at Max-Planck-Institute for Foreign and International Criminal Law in Freiburg. She got Fulbright scholarship in 2010-2011, and did research at University of California, Davis. Being a guest professor, she has delivered lectures in foreign universities and courts in Belgium, Germany, South Korea, Slovenia, South Africa, Switzerland, United Kingdom, United States and Vietnam. Being an international expert participated the EU projects on “Justice Partnership Programme” to help Vietnam to reform criminal procedure law and procuracy system. (2011) and leading case system (2013). Served as leader of several research projects, such as effective criminal defense (2008) and criminal trial and human rights protection (2010),Criminal investigation and human rights protection (2011);EU-China comparative research on sentencing (2011), Implementation of criminal procedure law(2012) and Participated some important legislative projects, such as criminal procedure law reform in China from 1994- 1996 and 2012-2013. The main published books are Criminal Trial and Human Rights Protection, and International Covenant on Civil and Political Rights-Criminal Justice in China. Numbers of articles were published both in China and other foreign countries.

Courses Taught: Criminal Procedure, Comparative Criminal Procedure, Comparative Criminal Justice, Criminal Justice and Human Rights Protection, German Criminal Justice, Implementation of Human Rights Law, and International Human Rights. English language courses for foreign students: Chinese Criminal Law, Chinese Criminal Procedure Law, and Chinese Criminal Justice.

Courses at China-EU Law School: Criminal Justice in China