

Biography Professor Gert Brüggemeier

Gert Brüggemeier (1944) is Professor emeritus of Civil Law, European Economic Law and Comparative Law at the Law Faculty of University of Bremen. He was 13 years Managing Director of the Centre of European Law and Politics at the University Bremen (ZERP) and also Judge at the Court of Appeal (Oberlandesgericht) Bremen (part-time).

He was Visiting Professor at the Law Schools/Law Faculties of UC Berkeley, Yale and Tulane (USA); Paris I - Sorbonne (France); Strathclyde, Glasgow (Scotland); European University Institute, Florence and Scuola Superiore Sant'Anna, Pisa (Italy).

Recent Publications: Haftungsrecht. Struktur, Prinzipien und Schutzbereich, Springer 2006; Fundamental Rights and Private Law in the European Union, 2 vols, CUP 2010 (senior co-ed.); Personality Rights in European Tort Law, CUP 2010 (sen. co-ed.); Modernising Civil Liability Law in Europe, China, Brazil and Russia, CUP 2011; European Union: Tort Law, International Encyclopaedia of Laws (IEL), Kluwer (forthcoming).