

Biography Prof. Dr. Salvatore Patti

Salvatore Patti is Professor of Private Law (Ordinario di Diritto Privato) at University of Rome I "La Sapienza" and has taught at the University Bocconi in Milan and other European Universities.

He studied at the University of Catania, where he graduated magna cum laude. He is a lawyer and admitted at the Italian Supreme Court ("Corte di Cassazione").

Salvatore Patti is a member of the following Associations: "Associazione italiana di Diritto comparato", "Association Henri Capitant", "International Society of Family Law", "Fullbright Alumni Association", "Alumni DAAD", "Alumni Alexander von Humboldt-Stiftung". Furthermore, he is member of the International Academy of Comparative Law and of the Gesellschaft für Rechtsvergleichung; he has been also member of the Scientific Committee of the Consiglio Superiore della Magistratura and of the Commission on European Family Law.

He is author of more than 300 scientific publications in many languages. He is scientific co-editor of the law reviews "Giurisprudenza italiana", "La nuova giurisprudenza civile commentata", member of the Internationaler Beirat of "Zeitschrift für das gesamte Familienrecht", member of the Kuratorium of "Zeitschrift für Europäisches Privatrecht", director of the collection "Studi di diritto privato". Acting as co-ordinator, he was responsible for the 2008 legal Encyclopedia of the major Italian business paper "Il Sole 24 ore".