

Biography Ms. Nicole Siller, JD

Nicole Siller received her legal education in the USA, after which she was appointed Assistant District Attorney in Philadelphia, Pennsylvania. During her time as a prosecutor, she handled a variety of cases involving gun violence, the drug trade, and sexual assault. Before beginning her post in Groningen, Siller was specially assigned to handle violent shootings and also worked on a Federal Bureau of Investigation Task Force investigating dangerous criminal organizations and gangs. Her PhD research focuses on the effective prosecution of international human traffickers.