

Biography Prof. Christine Godt

Prof. Dr. Christine Godt, Carl von Ossietzky University Oldenburg (since 2010), Director Hanse Law School, Jean Monnet Chair of European and International Economic Law. Her research interests focus on European economic law, regulatory property regimes in a comparative perspective, and patent law (esp. with regard to technology transfer, public health, and genetic resources). Habilitation 2005 (“Eigentum an Information”, Mohr Siebeck, 2007), and PhD 1995 („Haftung für Ökologische Schäden“, Dunker & Humblot 1997), both University of Bremen. Bar exams 1997 and 1991, both Berlin.

Christine.Godt@uni-oldenburg.de

<http://www.uni-oldenburg.de/euowr/>